

UNIVERSITY FINALS TAKE PLACE THIS WEEK

Commencement at Charlottesville Promises to Be Record-Breaking In Point of Attendance.

NOTABLE FIGURES ON PROGRAM

Exercises Begin This Morning With Baccalaureate Delivered by Rev.
O. E. Jefferson, D. D., of New York.
Diplomas Delivered Wednesday.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., June 12.

What promises to be the biggest and most largely attended alumni reunion and finals in the history of the University of Virginia will begin to-morrow afternoon with the arrival from Richmond, Washington and Lynchburg of special trains bringing hundreds of sons of Old U. Va. back to the lawn and rotunda. The special trains will reach Staion about 4 o'clock. At 5:30 a procession, headed by a band, will march from the station to the registration officers at the Colonnade Club, where the alumni will be assigned rooms.

The formal final exercises will begin to-morrow morning with the baccalaureate sermon in the chapel. The speaker will be Rev. Charles L. Jefferson, D. D., pastor of the Broadway Episcopal Church, New York City.

Dr. Jefferson is a pupil orator of note, and is the author of a number of important works dealing with religious and humanitarian topics. Since 1902 he has been a member of the government of Yale University. At the chapel service the members of the faculty and of the graduating class will attend in academic costume.

ANNUAL PUBLIC MEETING
OF UNIVERSITY Y. M. C. A.

The annual public meeting of the University Young Men's Christian Association will be held in Cabell Hall tomorrow evening. The session now closing has been the most successful in the life of the Y. M. C. A. here, which is the oldest college Y. M. C. A. in the world. More than 600 students are affiliated with the work of the association, and the Bible classes and other religious activities of the organization have been more largely attended than students this year than ever before, so that the annual meeting to-morrow night will have special significance.

The address will be made by Rt. Rev.
Frederick F. Reese, Bishop of Georgia.
Bishop Reese is a native of Baltimore, and was graduated from the University of Virginia in 1875, in the same class with Armistead C. Gordon, Rector of the University, and Henry C. Stuart, Governor of Virginia.

On Monday the features will be an old Virginia barbecue, which will be under the direction of William Carr, of Albemarle. In the evening the Washington and Jefferson Literary Societies will hold their annual meeting in Cabell Hall. Medals will be awarded winners in the several oratorical and debating contests, and addresses will be delivered by Chief Justice Walter Clark, of the Supreme Court of North Carolina.
His subject will be, "The Cause of Virginia's Greatness."

After the literary society exercises there will be a costume parade and torchlight parade around the university grounds. President Edwin A.
Alderman, Rector Gordon and Senator William Williams, of Mississippi, will review the parade from the balcony of the administration building on the east lawn. President Alderman will, on this occasion, welcome the returning alumni to the university.

Rector Gordon will speak to the board of visitors and Senator Williams will speak on behalf of the general alumni association.

SOUTH CAROLINA GOVERNOR WILL DELIVER ADDRESS

After the banquet and review Monday night there will be a ball masque at the gymnasium. This entertainment will be under the auspices of Corks and Curis, and will be replete with surprises including a "total eclipse of the moon."

The business part of the reunion of alumni will take place on Tuesday, which is officially listed as alumni day. The star of the exercises will be the Governor of South Carolina, Richard I. Manning, who was graduated from the University of Virginia in 1879. He will deliver the annual alumni address in Madison Hall at noon Tuesday after the business meeting of the Alumni Association, at which Senator Williams will preside. At this meeting a great many important matters will be considered. A closer affirmation of the alumni with all of the varied interests of the university will be sought and some definite policy as to alumni activity in the future will be promulgated.

A luncheon will be served at the commons, after which the exercises of the graduating class, including songs, passing of the loving cup and reading of class poem, will take place on the north plaza of the rotunda. Leigh G. Newell, of the law class, is class poet.

William P. Lane, Jr., president of the 1915 class, will deliver the farewell address to the university. President Alderman will respond.

After this the class of 1910 will take the center of the stage, and will present a cup to the oldest class boy.
The member of the class who traveled the longest distance to attend the reunion will also receive a cup. The last feature of this part of the program will be the presentation of the Colonnade Club's trophy to the class having the largest number of members present.

DR. AND MRS. ALDERMAN
WILL HOLD RECEPTION

President and Mrs. Alderman will give a reception at their home on Carr's Hill after the class exercises.
At night there will be two interesting features—an old Virginia supper and students by Gorman Club.

The last day of finals will be Wednesday, when diplomas will be handed to the graduates by President Alderman, who will make a number of announcements of importance at the corner Stuart, with other distinguished guests, will sit with the faculty on the platform in Cabell Hall. The afternoon will be devoted to social visits, and at 5 o'clock there will be a band concert on the lawn.

The last events will take place on Wednesday night, when the Beta of Virginia Chapter of Phi Beta Kappa will hold its business meeting in addition to banquet. The principal address will be delivered by Dr. James E. Creighton, the distinguished scholar and professor of logic and metaphysics at Cornell University.

MEMBER OF FACULTY
WITH GENERAL R. E. LEE

Professor M. W. Humphreys Goes to Attend Reunion at Washington and Lee University.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
LYNCHBURG, Va., June 12.—Professor M. W. Humphreys, emeritus professor of Greek in the University of Virginia, passed through Lynchburg today on his way to Lexington to attend a reunion of the alumni of Washington and Lee University, who were students under General R. E. Lee. He was one of the first class of masters of arts, eight in number, who received that degree on a course of studies. He ranked highest in the class and was the only graduate of the University of Virginia who received the Ph. D. degree at Leipzig in 1874, was professor of Greek at Vanderbilt from 1875 to 1883, professor of ancient languages at the University of Texas, 1883-87, and professor of Greek of the University of Virginia, 1887-1912, when he retired.
He served as a sergeant of artillery during the Civil War, and was reported to be one of the bravest soldiers and best gunners in the Confederate army.

This is the second plate stolen since the pew was occupied by Washington. The next plate was removed to safety by Mrs. Robert C. Powell, when the Federal troops occupied Alexandria during the war. At the request of an officer it was replaced, and stolen a short time thereafter.
The plate stolen today was placed on the pew a short time after the close of the war. The theft was discovered a few minutes after a party of tourists left the edifice.

A vandal this afternoon stole a leaf from the old Bible on the Masonic altar at the Masonic Temple, which was discovered by Tiler Zachary a short time after tourists left the temple. The parish register of Christ Church was stolen during the war and never has been recovered.

Charles Lamont, colored, was arrested last night by Police Whitlock and Schiefel on a charge of carrying a concealed pistol on his person.
The negro will be arraigned in the Police Court to-morrow.

Concealed Pistol.

Sid Dodge's place was running full blast. Courteous, obsequious waiters slid soft-footed from table to kitchen and back again, bearing in their miraculous arms dishes adroitly cheifed for the dissipated palates of epicu-reans—drinks cunningly mixed by the highest priced experts in the city. No expense was spared at Sid Dodge's place—the stakes were too big to skimp on the details that made for tone.

The room was filled with the strange murmur of many voices, high, low, soft, musical, harsh, droning—all contributing to an incessant mingling drum so meaningless in the abstract—so presant with meaning in each individual group. Bright lights made soft by artful globes hung suspended from the freecord ceiling by massive linked chains, and mingled their mellowed radiance with the rose-colored glow

Are Suspected.
ALEXANDRIA, Va., June 12.—A vandal this afternoon stole the silver assurance plate bearing Washington's signature from his historical oration at the University of Texas, 1883-87, and professor of Greek of the University of Virginia, 1887-1912, when he retired.

Concealed Pistol.
Charles Lamont, colored, was arrested last night by Police Whitlock and Schiefel on a charge of carrying a concealed pistol on his person.
The negro will be arraigned in the Police Court to-morrow.
